Now for Cut Prices!

We have now reached the season of the year when we always cut prices on Spring and Summer Clothing. We have no excuse to offer. We simply wish to convert the balance of this season's stock into cash and get ready for Fall and Winter goods, and our low prices will certainly remove the stock from the store into the possession of our patrons. We don't want this advertisement to appear sensational or read like a fake. We wish it to impress sensible people as a truthful statement of a plain business proposition. We have now begun to cut prices straight—an actual mark-down without a previous mark-up. We do this because it's good business policy, and these cut prices offer you the very best kind of business reasons for buying.

THE IRISH LAND BILL.

Devonshire Moves Second Reading In House of Lords.

London, Aug. 4.—The Duke of Devonshire moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the house of lords. He used the same arguments in favor of the necessity for passing the measure as were previously uttered by George Wyndham, the Irish secretary, in the house of commons. The duke declared that the government was confident that the expenditure of the $90,000,000 provided in the bill would be fully compensated for by economies in the judicial machinery and the reduction in the police expense, which the adoption of the measure would render possible.

In conclusion the speaker declared that the house of lords could not substantially alter the bill as adopted by the house of commons without serious risk of losing it altogether. The bill was in the nature of a treaty or instrument of peace, and although it would be rash to predict that it would prove a final settlement of the Irish question, any serious alteration would release the contracting parties from the obligations mutually undertaken. Never before, he said, had the representatives of the various interests concerned asked parliament to sanction a settlement the main principles of which they had themselves suggested.

Whiteness and Purity.

After all, there is nothing that looks better than a house painted white, with green blinds. White, you know, is the symbol of purity, but we are sorry to say that all white paint is not pure, neither in its composition nor color. You will agree with us that if half a dozen different brands of white paint were set side by side and you were asked to take your pick, you would not hesitate very long in taking the one that was whitest. Now, if the Colonial Paint was one of the brands to select from, you would carry home the Colonial, for it is the whitest of all paints. Furthermore, it takes about one quart of linseed oil to a gallon in order to thin to a proper consistency for use. Sold by C. A. Heath in Barre.
